MARCH DINNER PROGRAM: SUCCESS, SAFETY, AND SECURITY OF US MARITIME COMMUNITY

At the March 3 dinner we will hear from Carolyn "Lyn" McClelland who is retired as the Maritime Administration's Seattle representative (MARAD). She helped to support the success, safety, and security of the US maritime community in the Pacific Northwest. She will also be showing a DVD on the assistance provided by the Maritime Administration's vessels in New Orleans following hurricane Katrina.

Lyn worked on critical security programs such as Operation Safe Commerce, Smart and Secure Transportation, Seattle/Tacoma/Everett Port Security Program (STEP), and the Washington State Transportation Research Center electronic seal test. As a member of MARAD she worked with the US Coast Guard, US Army Corps of Engineers, Military Sealift Command, US Army I Corps, Surface Development and Distribution Command.

As stated by US Senator Patty Murray, "Her contributions were not limited to port security. She has also been a major supporter of the development of the Marine Transportation System, and the US Merchant Marine. Lyn has been a stalwart leader and mainstay of the Pacific Northwest maritime Industry, and she has strengthened the relationship between industry and government."

Lyn is a graduate of Tufts University and received a Masters in Psychology from Columbia University. She has won numerous awards for her work from both government agencies and maritime industry organizations.

Please see the coupon on page three to make your reservations for dinner at the Rock Salt Restaurant. Parking is free after 6:00 P.M. in the city lot in front of Rock Salt.

Meet Some of Our Behind The Scenes Crew

By Karen Marshall,
Interim Executive Director

In addition to our dedicated Thursday and Saturday collections and research volunteer teams based at the Museum of History and Industry (MOHAI,) the PSMHS is fortunate to have assistance from Ariel Johnson and Sara Martinez.

Ariel works on Thursdays with Library Coordinator Lisle Rose as the PSMHS Library Cataloger. Her primary task is to assist the library volunteer team with inventorying, listing, and entering our library and archives collection data in the PastPerfect cataloguing system.

Sara Martinez began volunteering with us in January. She is in her second year as a UW Museology graduate student and will complete the Master of Arts program in June. Sara has worked in several museums in California and is an expert user of the PastPerfect cataloguing system. During her time with us she will be troubleshooting issues in our database, updating records and helping prepare the object collection for the future move. We are so thankful to have both Ariel and Sara aboard.

Please Get Your Dinner Reservations In Early

We have talked about this many times before: because we work with a restaurant that must order food and staff to accommodate our needs in advance, it is most important that our reservations are mailed in a timely manner. We need to have the count by noon on the Monday before a dinner meeting date of Wednesday. Our dinner meeting coordinator Pat Hartle's phone number is always on the coupon above, it is on the front page in the lower left hand corner, and she is listed in the Seattle phone book. Please help us work better with our restaurant partners.
